

Lecture 1b: Practice Problems: John McGready

Lecture 1b: Practice Problems

John McGready
Johns Hopkins University

Practice Problems

1. Referring to each of the “almost random” assignment methods detailed in this lecture (alphabetical, sequential, telephone/social security number), can you suggest how each method could yield a biased (non-random) assignment?
 - Compare block randomization to simple randomization

2